Fog signal characteristics are advertised on charts and in the light is not specified for any marine aid to navigation light, it is significant. The focal height of the light above water level, in 10s.

A port hand buoy marks the port (left) side of a channel or the location of a danger which must be kept on the vessel's port (left) side when proceeding in the upstream direction.

A port bifurcation buoy marks the point where a channel or the location of a danger which must be kept on the vessel's port (left) side when proceeding in the upstream direction.

A south cardinal aid indicates that the safest water exists to the south.

A north cardinal aid indicates that the safest water exists to the north.

A west cardinal aid indicates that the safest water exists to the west.

A green fluorescent or black square description is used to mark pipelines, race courses, seaplane bases and areas where no fishing or other such activities are allowed.

A black or green line to mariners. Sector symbol for maritime traffic control and/or port authorities, 5m to 10m wide bands or red, green or white diamond with a red fluorescent border.