

Coastal Environmental Baseline Program

Fisheries and Oceans Canada's Coastal Environmental Baseline Program supports the collection of ecological data to describe the current state of key coastal ecosystems across Canada.

NATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

Address community concerns

Coverage along all three ocean coasts

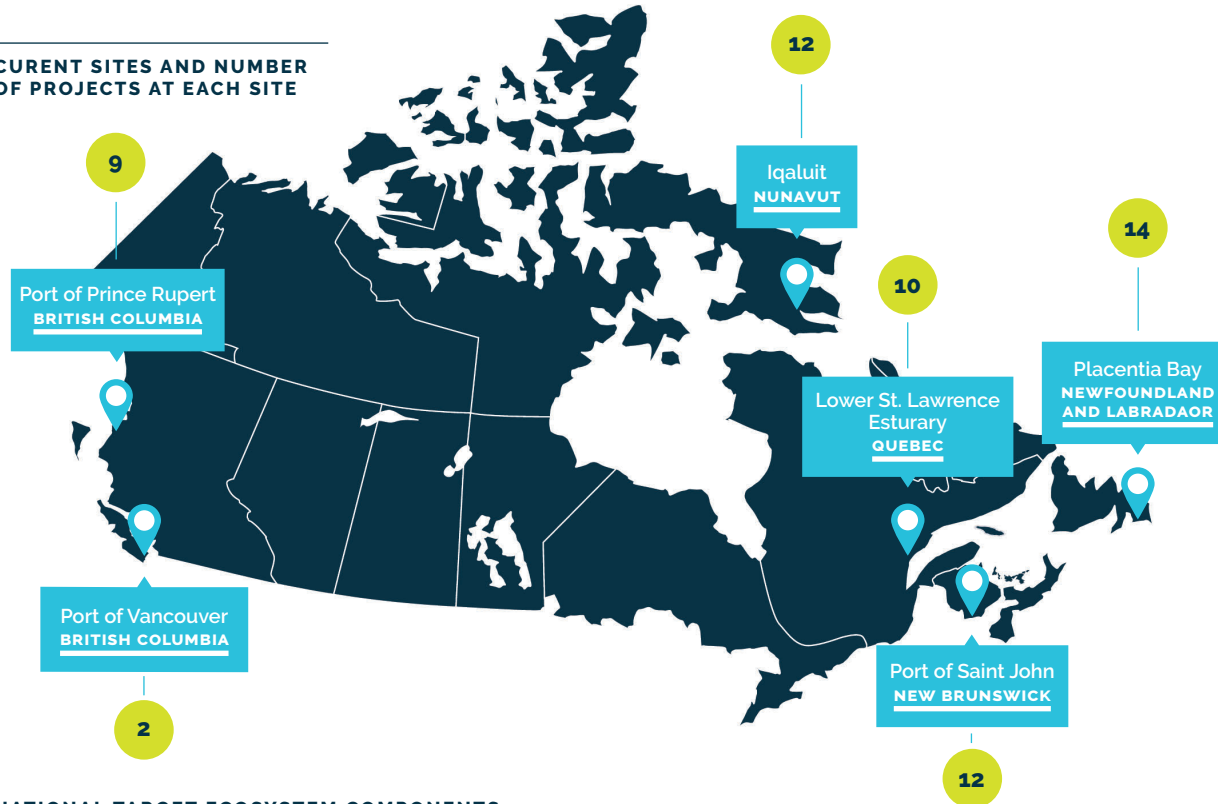

Include local communities in regional program design and implementation

Data meet national and international standards and are publicly accessible

CURRENT SITES AND NUMBER OF PROJECTS AT EACH SITE

NATIONAL TARGET ECOSYSTEM COMPONENTS

Physical/Oceanographic

Physical

Biogeochemical

Sediment Quality

Substrate

Biological

Algae

Emergents

Invertebrates

Fish

Mammals

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS BY CATEGORY

Legend

- Academic Institutions
- Non-government Organizations
- First Nations Organizations
- Inuit Organizations
- Provincial/Territorial Government and Port Authorities
- Fisheries Organizations
- Research Centres

March 2022

Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Pêches et Océans Canada

Canada